

THE IMPACT OF THE SINGAPORE CONVENTION ON INTERNATIONAL MEDIATION

Accra, Ghana. 4 October, 2019 (9am – 11.30am)

Free of charge

Venue

Ecobank Ghana Limited (Head Office)
2 Morocco Lane
Off Independence Avenue
Accra - Ghana

Objective

To provide an overview of ICC Mediation and to examine the implications of the Singapore Convention on mediation and ADR, whether this will enhance enforceability of international settlement agreements and by implication cross border transactions in Ghana and on the continent.

Who should attend?

Mediation and ADR practitioners of 40 years and under regardless of their professional background. It is open to lawyers and non-lawyers practicing in that space.

For registration and more information

To register, please send your contact details (first name, last name, firm/institution, email) to: nana.k@ayisiandassociates.com cc: iccyafrica@gmail.com

Sponsored by

Organized by

Supported by

PROGRAMME

09:00 - 09:40 Registration & Networking

09:40 - 09:50 Welcome & Introduction

09:50 - 10:10 Keynote Speech

10:10 - 10:50 Panel Discussion

10:50 - 11:20 Questions & Answers

11:20 - 11:30 Closing Remarks

SPEAKERS

Alexander G. Fessas

Secretary General of the ICC Court
Director of ICC Dispute Resolution Services

Peter Osei-Asomoah

Partner, Renaissance Law, Ghana.

Martin Nwosu Esq.

ADR Lecturer, Ghana School of Law

Godwin Djokoto

Partner, Legal Anchor

Justice Ayisi

Partner, Ayisi & Associates

Kwabena Kusi

Managing Partner, Lau Bureau Attorneys & Consulting Firm

Micahel Gyan Owosu

Managing Partner, O&A Legal Consult
President, Ghana ADR Hub

Laura Alakija

Deputy Managing Partner, Primera Africa Legal ICC YAF Representative, Africa, Middle East & Turkey

THE IMPACT OF THE SINGAPORE CONVENTION ON INTERNATIONAL MEDIATION

Accra, Ghana 4 October 2019